

IED GROUP PRIZE

For Final Year Students on IED Accredited Degree Courses

This annual prize is awarded to a group of final year students who achieved the best group project mark of their course. This would normally be a first class grade. The award is based on an assessment of the final year group project report. Nominations should be made on the enclosed nomination form by the course leader. Nominations this year are restricted to one award per course.

The IED accept that final year group projects from different institutions are likely to have different emphases and learning outcomes. The following are listed below as guidelines for the submission:

The project report submission must include:

- > A project brief
- > Graphical representation of the final design ie photograph, 3-D model or rendering of the prototype/solution
- > Evidence of the design process
- > Evidence of research and analysis

The submission should also normally include:

- > Summary of research undertaken including defined customer/market needs
- > A product design specification (P.D.S.)
- > Evidence of concepts derived and the evaluation process undertaken
- > Detail design with consideration of materials and manufacturing processes
- > Evidence of design calculations and/or analysis carried out
- > Evidence of testing and evaluation carried out
- > Tutor evaluation of industrial involvement/support etc if appropriate review/conclusions to work undertaken on the project
- > Evidence of peer evaluation of group activity
- > Tutor details of process for allocating individual students marks

NB Any elements not covered in the submitted project report should, if possible, be provided as additional paperwork.

The IED Prize consists of a trophy for the department, a certificate endorsed by the Institution and one extra year's free Graduate membership of the Institution for each winning Student.

Nominations for the IED GROUP PRIZE must be received no later than Friday 10th July 2009 and should be sent to: - Anna Clarke, Education and Training
